

TICAD V - 5th Tokyo International Conference on African Development - Partner Event

International Seminar Integrated Ecosystem and Risk Management in Africa and Inter-University Partnership

Friday 31 May 2013 16:00 - 17:45
Information and Culture Hall

(11 Nihon Odori, Naka-ku, Yokohama Yokohama Media and Communication Center 6F)

Organiser: Leadership Program for Sustainable Living with Environmental Risk (SLER)

Co-organisers: Yokohama National University (YNU),
Japan Society for International Development
Yokohama Branch (JASID Yokohama)

Opening remarks

Prof. Ichiro Araki

YNU Deputy Executive Director for International Affairs and Professor, YNU International Graduate School of Social Sciences (IGSSS)

Introduction

Prof. Nobuhiro Kaneko

Coordinator, SLER and Professor, YNU Graduate School of Environment and Information Sciences (GSEIS)

Panelists

Prof. Shinji Yoshiura

Professor, YNU-GSEIS

Prof. Osamu Koike

Professor, YNU IGSSS and Chairman, JASID-Yokohama

Prof. Kazue Fujiwara

Professor, Yokohama City University Graduate School of Nanobioscience and Professor Emeritus, YNU

Mr. Masanori Kobayashi Associate Professor, YNU-GSEIS

Discussants

※ Broadcasted with U of Nairobi and U of Antananarivo

Prof. Samuel Kiboi,

Senior Lecturer, School of Biological Sciences, University of Nairobi

Prof. Bruno Ramamonjisoa,

Professor and head of School of Agronomy (ESSA-Forêts),
Department of Water and Forests, University of Antananarivo

Dr. Abel Barasa Atiti,

Research Fellow, Education for Sustainable Development Program,
United Nations University-Institute of Advanced Studies

Dr. Paul Offei Manu,

Researcher, Education and Learning for Sustainability Team,
Institute for Global Environmental Strategies

Admission: Free. Please register in advance by sending an email to re-lead3@ynu.ac.jp with the title of "Ecosystem seminar" and stating your name and affiliation. It is possible to register on site.

Language: English

Email address for
Advanced registration

